Important Notice to Applicants

- All documents must be submitted in their original form in either Korean or English. Documents in languages other than Korean or English must be submitted with notarized translations in Korean or English.
- Submitted documents will not be returned to the applicant. If the original document cannot be submitted, a certified duplicate copy (with an apostille or consular verification) must be submitted.
- If any discrepancies are found in the application form or if the required documents are found to be incomplete during document screening (Stage 1), the application will be marked as "rejected" and excluded from consideration.
- If an applicant is found to have submitted false information or falsified or altered documents to gain admission, the admission will be revoked, even after enrollment, and the tuition fees will not be refunded.
- The admission scores will not be disclosed, and submitted documents (records) will not be returned.
- Once the application is submitted, changes to the application details or cancellation will not be allowed. Applicants are responsible for any errors, omissions, or inaccuracies in their online application, so careful attention is advised when filling out the forms.
- Successful applicants must pay the tuition fees by the specified deadline. Failure to make payment will result in the cancellation of admission.
- Applicants admitted as expected graduates must additionally submit a graduation certificate and final transcript. Failure to submit will result in cancellation of both admission and enrollment.
- The Standard Admission Certificate will be sent only to students currently staying overseas who must apply for a visa at a Korean diplomatic mission abroad.
- If an admitted student is unable to enroll due to unavoidable circumstances or decides not to enroll, they may receive a refund of tuition fees in accordance with the university policy.
 ※ New students will be provided a full refund of the tuition if they decide not to register before the official enrollment date. If they withdraw after the enrollment date, the tuition will be refunded after subtracting the amount corresponding to the number of class days attended from the enrollment date to the withdrawal date.
- All admitted students must enroll in accident insurance, effective from the date of entry into Korea, to cover any potential accidents or illnesses during their stay. (The insurance must be maintained throughout their studies.) According to the National Health Insurance Act, international students are automatically enrolled as regional subscribers of the National Health Insurance, as of March 2021.
 ※ National Health Insurance Service: Website <https://www.nhis.or.kr/nhis> Phone +82-33-811-2000
- Any matters not explicitly stated in these guidelines will be decided by the Admissions Committee.
- The admission guidelines are available in Korean, English, and Chinese. In case of any discrepancies, the Korean version will prevail.
- If the documents submitted by the applicant do not provide sufficient information for verification, additional documents may be requested, and applicants failing to submit requested documents will be rejected.
- Regardless of the campus, applications can only be submitted once per session. If multiple applications are submitted, subsequent applications will be excluded for reasons of failure to meet the eligibility requirements. (If discovered, admission will be cancelled even after enrollment.)
- The applicant's personal information will only be used for the purposes specified below and be properly disposed of at the end of the retention period. (In the case of applicants who register with the university, this information will be used for academic records.)

□ Collection and Use of Personal Information (Required)

- Kangwon National University collects and uses personal information from applicants for undergraduate school admission as follows:
 - Applicant information: name, foreigner registration number, passport number, address, (mobile) phone number, e-mail, bank account number
 - School information: educational background, schools attended, (expected) year of graduation, and period of study and stay abroad
 - Occupational information: Occupation (classification, etc.)
 - Others: language test scores, letters of recommendation, etc.
- The collected personal information will be used solely for admission, scholarship management, academic affairs, statistical purposes, course registration guidance, visa and residency management, and dormitory placement, and will not be used for any other purposes. Once the retention period (10 years) has expired, or the purpose has been achieved, all personal information will be immediately disposed of.
